PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

Operator who ships. NYU Abu Dhabi student combining client-facing business development, hands-on technical project work, and creative systems thinking across interactive media and emerging tech. Secured $40K in sponsorships, managed 20+ person programs across 4 cycles, and consistently owned projects from first contact to final delivery in fast-moving, multicultural environments.

EXPERIENCE

Technical Business Development Associate

Summer 2025 – Present

Loop Dimension (Part-Time, Remote)

- Led client discovery and scoping across 3+ simultaneous engagements, translating ambiguous requirements into structured technical briefs handed directly to engineering teams
- Built and owned the client communication workflow end-to-end, cutting estimated back-and-forth time by 30% through structured async documentation
- Wrote pitches and proposals for web, mobile, and AI/ML product engagements, adapting messaging to both technical and non-technical decision-makers

Project Coordinator

2024 – 2025

Violet Racing, Formula SAE Team (Full-Time, Onsite)

- Closed $40,000 in sponsorships through a self-run outreach pipeline targeting major tech companies including ClickUp and Perplexity — from cold prospecting to signed deals
- Managed cross-functional coordination across engineering, design, and logistics sub-teams under competition deadlines, handling vendor relationships, budget tracking, and risk escalation

Candidate Weekend Group Leader

2025 – 2026

NYU Abu Dhabi Admissions (Part-Time, Onsite)

- Ran real-time logistics and accountability for groups of up to 20 admitted candidates across 4-day intensive recruitment programs, repeated across 4 cycles with zero reported incidents
- Managed concurrent communication across WhatsApp and Slack while triaging candidate needs under time pressure, serving as the primary point of contact for escalations

Admissions Ambassador

2024 – 2026

NYU Abu Dhabi (Part-Time, Onsite)

- Delivered 40+ tours and information sessions to thousands of prospective international students and families, representing NYUAD in high-stakes, public-facing contexts
- Handled data entry and event logistics under competing priorities in a fast-paced, multicultural environment

Arabic Teaching Assistant

2024 – 2025

NYU Abu Dhabi (Part-Time, Onsite)

- Supported instruction across 200+ students over 4 semesters, managing scheduling, student communication, and in-session coordination for a high-enrollment language course
